'Key Statistics – NUS did not supply data for THE international students; QS has them first in this metric

Only the score for Industry Income is less this year than last year and many of the countries ahead of U HK on this metric are not in the top 100 overall and were not even in last year's rankings. As seen in Table 2, this category is a weakness for Hong Kong universities in general, if this metric is important to the universities, their administrators and their funding agencies.
