

Example 1: Two ways to access 2019 Highly Cited Researchers list

Example 1.A.: Using the Highly Cited Researchers web interface

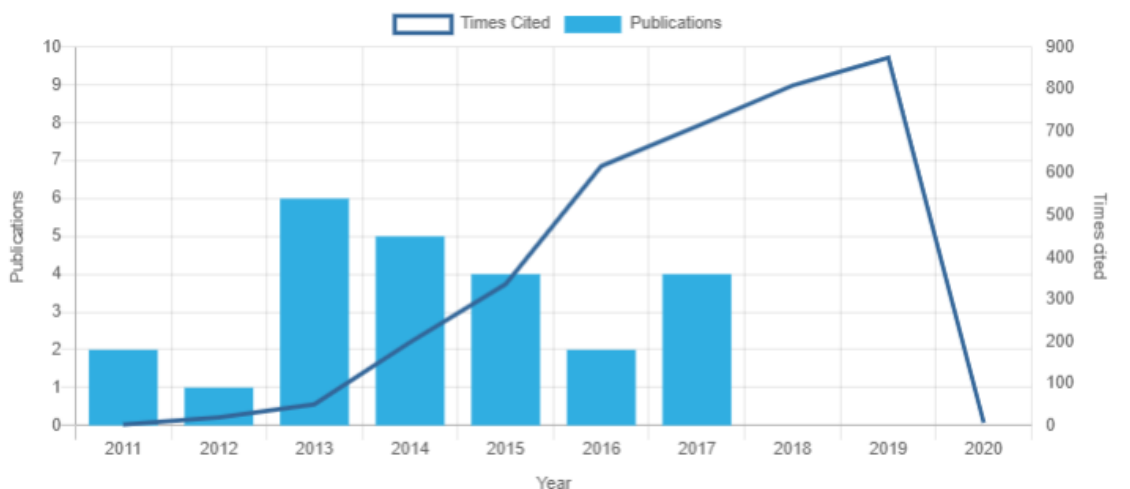

Powered by Web of Science Group's Essential Science Indicators

1 2 3 ... 8 9

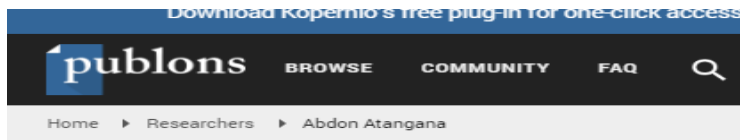

FULL NAME	CATEGORY	PRIMARY AFFILIATION	SECONDARY AFFILIATION
 A. H. Castro Neto	Physics	National University of Sin...	-	View Profile
AS Andreas Schlitzer	Cross-Field	Agency for Science Tech...	University of Bonn	View Profile

To find RELEVANT information about an author, click on the author's name. Then chose "METRICS" from the left-hand panel.

Clarivate Analytics is now using the PUBLONS dataset for its author records. If you click on "View Profile" there is often no information. The metrics focus on peer review not citations. If you use the profile interface and go back to Researchers, you are no longer in the Highly Cited list but the Publons reviewer list.

Example 1.B. Downloading the author list spreadsheet

If you are comfortable changing text to columns and sorting a spreadsheet, I strongly recommend that you download the list by registering Sort by last name, field and institution. It is the best way to get a list of researchers by any combination of name, institution, category and country. This list does NOT have metrics.

Step One: Parse the Affiliations column, separating affiliation from country.

Step Two: Sort the columns to your preference.

I answered the question: Who are the Highly Cited researchers in the field of Engineering in Kong Kong's universities?
