

APPENDIX 51-2: Methodology and Table 51-2: List of Women's universities

Korea's Ewha Womans University is the consensus highest ranked women's university.

Methodology: I created a list of women's universities in selected Asian countries. I used Wikipedia's women's list as an aid. Search tool

Universities are on at least one more list and are accredited:

THE World, Impact, and Japanese rankings; list>8000 unis Search tool

QS World, Asia, and India and list of >6000 unis Search tool

Webometrics with 30,000 tertiary institutions, including junior colleges and technical schools. All listed universities are in Webometrics. Not all institutions in Webometrics are on the list

DATA Analytics: Clarivate's Incites (I C) and Elsevier's SciVal (S V) - subscriptions required

Articles and websites; OECD and World Bank data

Country level accreditation bodies were used as a final check.

Disclaimer: This list is based on my research. I may have missed universities that do not have "women" in their names. I only used the better known IREG approved rankings for my sources. I did not include rankings that were based on bibliometrics since the focus is female students.
